Track on Old Carroll Place,
"Corso," Will Be Scene of Speed Contests.

The races of the Ashland Driving Club, an organization composed of horse-lovers and breeders of Hanover county, will be pulled off Saturday vening, October 17th, at 2 o'clock. The meet will be held at "Corso," once the home of a famous horse-owner and recomply will be held at "Corso," once the home of a famous horse-owner and racing devotee, the late James J. Carroll, who had his training stables and a good half a mile track there. Carroll and his colored trainer, Bob Harper, were once well-known figures throughout the racing circuit of this 'country' and Canada, and the stables as the concession one sheltered many splendid specimens of the Virginia racer.

The card offered for Saturday's meet is a good one, which includes several shows ever the recent showing of the team. The structent band was out and its presence added much to the sace of the team.
